Next week's readings: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – Year A

First Reading [Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a] Moses reminded the people that for forty years God tested them in the desert. The Lord let them be hungry and fed them manna, showing that God's people to not live by bread alone.

Second Reading [1 Corinthians 10:16-17] By sharing in the Eucharistic bread, Christians, though many, are one body in Christ.

Gospel [John 6:51-58] Jesus told the crowds that he is the living bread come down from heaven. All who want eternal life must "eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood." Jesus said, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life."

Pope Francis says that Holy Trinity Sunday exhorts us to live "one with the other", to "welcome the beauty of the Gospel message" and to learn to ask forgiveness. Marking the liturgical feast of Holy Trinity Sunday, the Pope reminds us that it is celebrated in honor of the most fundamental of Christian beliefs, the mystery of the three Persons of God –Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, --who are all equally God, and cannot be divided, the Pope said this solemnity renews in us "our own mission to live in communion with God and with each other." He said: "We are not called to live without the other, above or against the other, but with the other, for the other and in the other." This –the Pope said – means welcoming and bearing witness to the beauty of the Gospel; loving each other, sharing joy and suffering, learning how to forgive." The Holy Spirit "guides us towards full knowledge of Christ's teachings", and that Jesus "came to the world to acquaint us with the Father", everything in Christian life – he says—revolves around the mystery of the Trinity": "So let's pitch our lives high, remembering for which glory we exist, we work, we fight, we suffer, and in which immense prize we are called in participate in."
