Next week's readings: Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading [Sirach 27:30-28:7] Forgive the injustice of your neighbor, for then your own sins will be pardoned. Remember death, stop sinning, recall the commandments, love your neighbor, think of God's covenant, and overlook the faults of others.

Second Reading [Romans 14:7-9] We are not our own masters, but we are responsible to the Lord as servants. In life and in Death we belong to the Lord, Christ died and rose to life in order to become "Lord of both the dead and the living."

Gospel [Matthew 18:21-35] In a parable on forgiveness, Jesus compared the reign of God to a King settling accounts with his officials: Moved by compassion, the king forgave some or all of each debt. An official then extorted the full amount he was owed, and the king punished him.
