Next week's readings: Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading [Ezekiel 18:25-28] The Lord spoke through Ezekiel: "Hear now, house of Israel.... If he turns from the wickedness he has committed, and does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life."

Second Reading [Philippians 2:1-11] Paul quoted an ancient hymn: "Though Christ was in the form of God, he did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. He emptied himself, taking the form of a slave and obediently accepted death on the cross. So God exalted him and gave him a name above every other name."

Gospel [Matthew 21:28-32] Jesus said that outcasts enter God's reign because of faith but not the righteous who lack repentance: "Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you."
